Candidate Instructions

Candidate Instructions: You have 20 minutes to read your scenario, plan, organize, and prepare a 5-minute presentation. Following the 5-minute presentation, 5 additional minutes will be focused on your ability to respond accurately to questions regarding the topic and the presentation.

Topic: FFA Membership - Recruitment & Retention

Scenario	As a State Officer, you're attending a conference for agricultural educators. The State FFA Advisor has asked you to speak briefly on the recruitment and retention of FFA members. Following your presentation, the advisors will ask you questions for information on how to improve their FFA membership. Present a 5-minute speech providing ideas for the recruitment and the retention of FFA members within agricultural education programs.
Follow-up Questions from Committee Only seen by the committee	3.1 We're all aware of the broad career fields that agriculture covers and that it's not just farming, but it's difficult to explain that to a freshman who is not focused on their career just yet. What avenues do you suggest I take in getting them to be a part of the agriculture program? 3.2 What resources does state and national FFA offer to promote recruitment and retention efforts? 3.3 FFA is considered a club at my school. How do you suggest I incorporate FFA in my every day teachings?
